HISTORY OF WHITE COUNTY

by
REV. MONROE SEALS.

Copyrighted 1935
by
Mrs. Monroe Seals

PREFACE

I have drawn from all sources, am indebted to hundreds of people, to records and the original section of the Expositor. I aim to give many things not in print. I introduce witnesses who have gone before for sixty years. It has been a difficult task, tradition as such being unreliable, and the written works not much better. I have written under great difficulties.

I call men by their home name as Bill instead of William, if that was the name he was commonly called. I deal with White County proper.

I have aimed at an unbiased narrative, giving the truth. I likely have made omissions in this work inadvertently, therefore invite corrections by the public.

Rev. Monroe Seals.
